

The new developed and modified accredited study programs at at three Serbian universities (University of Kragujevac, University of Nis and University of Novi Sad) in automotive and urban engineering have been started in winter semester at the begging of October of 2013/14 academic schoolyear. The project team wishes lot of success to all enrolled students!