

Since the number of international companies in the field of the automotive industry is increasing in Serbia, lifelong learning and permanent education in this field has become an important issue. In this project, the number of specific courses at participating national universities will be developed for LLL in the field of the automotive industry in order to improve the quality of human resources in the automotive sector.

Meeting with FIAT HR representatives

Visit of UKG teachers to FAS facilities

Training modules developed for FAS

List of people responsible for FAS trainings